PREDICT HER RECOVERY

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 3.-After having practically been dead for ten minutes, Mrs. Walter W. Akers, wife of the Cali-fornia manager for the International Pruit Products Company, and formerly prominent in Boston society, was restored to life following an operation, and phy-sicians say she will recover. "The 'raising' was not from a theoretical death, or state of coma, as it is or-dinarily understood," said Dr. B. M. dinarily understood," said Dr. B. M. Williams, who, with Dr. C. S. Hutchison, were the principals of the restoration.

"Mrs. Akers was actually dead," continued Dr. Williams. "Her heart had stopped its functioning; there was no pulse; the eyes were fixed in the glare which shows to every medical man the enternal step; there was no response to the same of the same o
